

DESIGNING ENVIRONMENTS FOR HEALTH

2011 LECTURE SERIES

Presented by:

The Nashville Civic Design Center, in collaboration with the University of Tennessee College of Architecture + Design, is pleased to present this lecture series, exploring how the built environment influences physical, mental, emotional, and social health.

visit www.civildesigncenter.org/health for more information

FEBRUARY

Lecture:

Ergonomics and Healthcare IT 2011: Current Issues and Future Trends

Alan Hedge, PhD, CPE

Director of Human Factors and Ergonomics Laboratory, Department of Design and Environmental Analysis, Cornell University

Thursday, February 10

Reception 5:00 p.m.

Lecture 6:00 p.m.

The University Club of Nashville
2402 Garland Avenue

Panel Discussion:

Ergonomics and Healthcare IT 2011: Current Issues and Future Trends – applying the insights of Dr. Hedge’s lecture to Nashville

Moderated by John Rouse, publisher of Contract Magazine

Thursday, February 24

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Nashville Civic Design Center
138 Second Avenue North, Suite 106

Lecture and Panel Discussion
Sponsored by:

MARCH

Lecture:

Engaging the Community in Creating “World Class” Healthcare Facilities

Bruce Komiske

Chief, New Hospital Design and Construction, Children’s Memorial Hospital, Chicago

Thursday, March 24

Reception 5:00 p.m.

Lecture 6:00 p.m.

The University Club of Nashville
2402 Garland Avenue

Panel Discussion:

Engaging the Community in the Arts and Healthcare

Thursday, March 31

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Monroe Carell Jr. Children’s Hospital at Vanderbilt
Waddlington Conference Room B
2200 Children’s Way

Lecture and Panel Discussion
Sponsored by:

Earl Swensson Associates, Inc.

APRIL

Lecture:

Designing the Built Environment for the Aging and Others

Patricia Moore

Internationally renowned gerontologist, author, designer, and a leading authority on consumer life span behaviors and requirements

Thursday, April 14

Reception 5:00 p.m.

Lecture 6:00 p.m.

The University Club of Nashville
2402 Garland Avenue

Panel Discussion:

Designing the Built Environment for the Aging and Others

Thursday, April 28

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Nashville Civic Design Center
138 Second Avenue North, Suite 106

Panel Discussion
Sponsored by:

HFR DESIGN

