

DESIGNING ENVIRONMENTS FOR HEALTH

2011 LECTURE SERIES

Panel Discussion:

“Involving the Cultural Community in the Building and Sustaining of Healthcare Environments”

Thursday, March 31

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Monroe Carell Jr. Children’s Hospital at Vanderbilt
Waddlington Conference Room B
2200 Children’s Way

Admission for the series is FREE.

Note: $45 will be collected for those requiring AIA registration as a Health Safety Welfare (HSW) CEU.

OTHER SPEAKERS IN THIS SERIES:

Patricia Moore:

Design for All: Inclusivity for a Quality Lifespan
April 14, The University Club

Presented by

University of Tennessee
College of Architecture + Design

MODERATOR

Harry Chapman

Director of Development and Major Gifts
Belmont University

PANELISTS

Donna Glassford

Executive Director of Cultural Enrichment,
Vanderbilt University Medical Center

David Minnigan

Principal,
Earl Swensson Associates

Michelle Toungette

President,
Junior League of Nashville

A panel discussion on how health wellness design and culture can come together to create dynamic healing environments.

Visit www.civicedesigncenter.org/health or call 615.248.4280
for more information

Sponsored by:

